

Seniors!

You and Your Family are Cordially Invited to Attend the Class of 2009

Baccalaureate Celebration

On Sunday, May 31 at 3:00 p.m. (seniors arrive at 2:15 p.m.), in the Auditorium at Governor Thomas Johnson High School.

- This Baccalaureate ceremony is an interfaith service with spiritual leaders from many religious traditions offering words of encouragement to our graduates. The theme for this program is “Your Journey Begins with Hope”. This uplifting event will include student musical selections, readings and inspirational messages.
- In order to help us plan for this event,
 - Students, if you are interested in speaking, offering a musical selection or sharing a talent for this event, please contact Betty Ludwig at 301-696-1473 or Brieseludw@msn.com
 - We would like to extend an invitation to the clergy of your place of worship to participate in this celebration. Please contact Alfildur Gudlaugsdottir at Alfildur@verizon.net
 - Please let us know how many family members will be attending. You may respond to Betty Ludwig 301-696-1473, email Brieseludw@msn.com or by dropping off the tear-off section below in the box marked “2009 Baccalaureate” In the school’s front office by April 30
- Desserts and beverages will be served in the cafeteria following the ceremony.
- Appropriate dress is requested (no shorts, no jeans).

My family and I are planning to attend the joyful
Baccalaureate Celebration on May 31.
